

Commissioner Bruce E. Davis

Bruce E. Davis, a Democrat, is serving his second full term on the Guilford County Board of Commissioners. He was appointed to serve District 1 in April 2002 to fill the unexpired term of the late Donnie Dunovant. He was elected to a four-year term in November 2002 and again in 2006. He served as Chairman of the Board in 2005.

Commissioner Davis is a native of High Point, North Carolina where he graduated from High Point Central High School. He proudly served in the United States Marine Corps for 20 years where he studied at the Marine Corps Institute. He has an AAS Degree in Business from GTCC and is currently attending High Point University. He completed a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration/Economics in 2006. He is the Co-Founder and President of Kid Appeal Learning Center Inc. in High Point.

Commissioner Davis currently serves as the Board of Commissioners liaison on several Boards including the High Point Convention and Visitors Bureau, High Point Market Authority, and PART's Heart of Triad Steering Committee. He also serves as a chair of the Board's Community Based Organizations Study Committee. He previously served on the Piedmont Triad Partnership, Guilford County Partnership for Children, the Guilford County Aids Partnership, the Guilford County Board of Health, and the Guilford County Homeless Coalition.

He is active in numerous civic and volunteer organizations including the Guilford County Elected Officials Black Caucus, the High Point Black Leadership Roundtable, the Professional Business Men Club, the High Point YMCA Association Board, Carl Chavis YMCA Board of Management, and Gethsemane Baptist Church Board of Trustees. He is also an active member of the NAACP.

He was recently recognized by the NC Interagency Council for coordinating a 10-Year Plan to end homelessness in Guilford County. He was also featured as a "Mover and Shaker" in the April 2004 issue of Biz Life Magazine.

Commissioner Davis and his wife Angela Boyce Davis have five children Bryce, Markisha, Chaz, Tandira, and Bruce Jr.
